

Proof of Experience Abroad

In accordance with §6(3) of the aptitude test regulations, to gain admission to the Master's degree program in Management, Leadership, Innovation (MLI), applicants are required to demonstrate international experience. This involves participating in an international activity for a minimum of three* months outside their home country. Such experiences may include but are not limited to:

- Stay abroad during your university studies (summer school, semester abroad or similar)
- Stay abroad during the school years
- Internship abroad
- Au pair programs
- Language study trips
- Work & Travel programs
- Other experiences of similar kind

*Experience abroad of at least six months can be credited with a bonus of up to 0.2 towards the overall grade of the professionally qualifying Bachelor's degree program.