TRAVEL OVERSEAS, EXPERIENCE DIFFERENT CULTURES AND GET A DEGREE – AT THE SAME TIME.

STUDY OVERSEAS

I booked my plane ticket to the other side of the world to study at Masaryk University in the Czech Republic.

My trip kicked off with an awesome Eurail experience around Europe. By train, I travelled to many countries including Austria, Slovakia, Croatia, Germany, Belgium, France and Italy.

While studying at Masaryk University, there were lots of subjects to choose from that involved learning about Czech lifestyle and culture, and allowing me to gain credit towards my degree.

My time abroad gave me a new perspective on the world. I watched the seasons change and experienced a white Christmas. I learnt about new cultures and discovered more about my own, and made friends all around the globe. From watching the snow fall in Cesky Krumlov, visiting the Christmas markets in Krakow, to relaxing in the Budapest thermal baths, ice skating, to snow skiing, mountain hiking and exploring old cities, studying abroad well and truly exceeded my expectations.

Breanna Fraser

USC student who studied in the Czech Republic

You don't have to choose between uni and travel. Spend one or two semesters abroad at one of USC's partner institutions, or take the opportunity to complete a placement or internship overseas.

WHY STUDY OVERSEAS?

- Improve your language skills
- Explore a new culture
- Gain valuable life skills
- Broaden your career options
- Enhance your employability
- Establish a global network of friends
- Gain credit towards your degree

I decided to leave Norway and come to USC and Australia to study a Bachelor of Animal Ecology. I have always been interested in animals and nature and thought this degree would be a good fit. Now, three years later and about to graduate, I do not regret my decision. My teachers have been amazing, I have learned and experienced so much through my courses.

The degree focuses on animals, their environment and conservation, and equips you with valuable skills and qualities. Whale watching, bird counting, running spiders and geckos, swimming with turtles and rays are only some of the things I have done through studying Animal Ecology.

Field trips have taken me to places like Fraser Island and Heron Island, and I have been introduced to a lot of cool research. Because of this, I decided to stay at USC another year to do my Honours degree. I am excited to see where it takes me!

Tina Haagenen (Norway)

Bachelor of Animal Ecology and Bachelor of Science (Honours), USC Sunshine Coast

After one year of living in Sydney, I decided to pursue my profession as a nurse and initially I was looking for a university that is big on student support services, lo and behold, USC came up on top of the list. As an international student, it is highly valuable to be in a university that will support our academic and mental wellbeing while pursuing our personal and professional goals. For one year, I was flying back and forth between Sydney and Sunshine Coast before I finally moved to the region, but it's all worth it in the end because USC has provided me a lot of industry-related experiences not just in my degree as a nurse but also in leveraging my capabilities in networking, leadership, and cultural competency.

Having an Australian degree is an area that is difficult to let go, especially in the field of science and nursing, to better my knowledge and skills, likewise, to experience different proportions of nursing care and education because the opportunities in this profession are virtually limitless here and anywhere in the world. We have seen it first-hand, due to the pandemic, that healthcare is a vital aspect of a country's progress, hence, I am humbled to be in the frontline delivering the assistance needed by the people as a student RN and as an aged-care worker.

In line with this, I am able to put into practice my theoretical learnings from tutorials and practical skills from clinical placements to my current undertakings even before finishing my degree which is fulfilling enough during this current health crisis. All of these are happening in the fastest growing region of Queensland with beaches and mountains at the backdrop, I thought I could not ask for more, but I am also thrilled by the relentless support of the region and the state through Study Sunshine Coast and Study Queensland. Nursing and healthcare will continue to thrive but choosing USC as my education provider just made my journey more well-rounded and holistic.

Joe Bautista (Philippines)

Bachelor of Nursing Science (Graduate Entry), USC Sunshine Coast

My name is Onella. I'm from a small multicultural country called Sri Lanka. I moved to Australia in 2020 and have been living in Hervey Bay for a year. I am currently in the second year of my Bachelor of Social Work and I am keen to gain experience while studying. Though, adjusting to a new environment has been a challenge amidst the ongoing pandemic, my academic journey has been great so far.

I visited Australia a couple of times before moving here. I loved everything about Australia, especially the small regional town of Hervey Bay. I visited USC Fraser Coast and absolutely loved it. Some of my family living in Hervey Bay recommended USC Fraser coast as the best place for a young beginner like me who has to adjust to major changes in life.

Social Work is a practice-based profession that concerns every individual in the community. Learning Social Work is very interesting and the support I get from my peers, lecturers and tutors is appreciated. Although USC Fraser Coast is a regional campus and a comparatively small campus, it has all the important facilities and is a great place to meet people and make friends.

If you are a secondary school graduate, you will have the opportunity to gain international experience before starting your degree.

Study Abroad students generally study four courses per semester, which equates to approximately 30 ECTS or 15-18 US credit points*. For a full range of courses, visit usc.edu.au/studyabroad

Flexibility to plan your studies

This program is a great option if you have just finished high school and want to study abroad without committing to a degree program. It is also a good option if you are currently enrolled at an overseas institution and only want to study abroad for a short time, while possibly earning credit towards your home degree.

This program is available as a one semester (four months) option, or two semesters (full year) option.

Take classes with the locals

You will be able to choose three or four courses (36 or 48 units) from USC's extensive course catalogue. The courses on offer are taken directly from within USC's undergraduate programs, which means you have the opportunity to take classes with the locals and you will have a wide range of study disciplines to choose from.

An academic and cultural adventure

Studying abroad not only provides life-changing opportunities, but it is also an academic and cultural adventure — an adventure that allows you to move across the globe, and continue to undertake your academic studies, while fully immersing yourself in Australian culture.

Australian culture is certainly on offer at USC Sunshine Coast. Located in the sunny state of Queensland on Australia's east coast and only a short one-hour drive north of the state's capital, Brisbane — the Sunshine Coast is a destination of endless beaches, lush rainforests, and expansive hinterlands. It is home to the architecturally diverse USC Sunshine Coast campus — a campus renowned for its environmentally sustainable approach.

Memories to last a lifetime

At USC Sunshine Coast, you will become one of the locals in no time and enjoy making friends with Australians, while also meeting students from around the world.

The friendships, experiences and memories you make at USC are sure to last a lifetime.

* Credit transfer (including credit weighting) towards your home degree is based on your home institution's approval.

USC offers six diploma programs. USC's diplomas are recognised one-year (96 units) Australian Qualification Framework (AQF) award programs.

These programs are a great option if you have just finished high school and want to study abroad without committing to a three- or four-year degree program. They are also a good option if you are currently enrolled at an overseas institution and only want to study abroad for a short time, while possibly earning an AQF qualification to use towards your home degree.

Course flexibility while studying among the locals

To be eligible to graduate from this program, you are required to successfully complete eight courses (96 units) over two semesters.

Each semester you will be required to enrol in four courses (or 48 units) from USC's extensive course catalogue.

The courses on offer are taken directly from within several of USC's undergraduate programs, which means you have the opportunity to enrol in classes with the locals, while having the flexibility to choose your preferred courses.

Graduate with an award and celebrate your achievements

Students who successfully complete a USC diploma program are eligible to:

- graduate with an (AQF) diploma
- participate in the USC Graduation ceremony, and/or
- participate in the International Ceremony of Completion

Apply for credit and complete your program in one semester[#]

USC offers eligible students the opportunity to apply for their preferred diploma with up to 50 percent credit transfer[#], which means students could complete the program in one semester.

- students can apply for credit for up to four courses (48 units)
- if four courses of credit transfer are granted, students will be required to successfully complete the remaining four courses (48 units) at USC to graduate
- eligibility of credit transfer can only be assessed once an application has been received

* To be eligible, students with recognised prior tertiary studies must apply for and receive credit transfer.

 Subject to home institution approval.

DOUBLE DEGREE PROGRAMS

Maximise your study by earning degrees from both USC and your home university in the same time period.

Credit transfers from your home university toward a USC program, could see you earn a USC Bachelor degree in just two semesters or a USC Master degree in just one semester, while completing your home degree at the same time.

Completing a degree at the USC will further enhance your English language skills enabling you to experience Australian culture whilst providing you a competitive advantage in the global business environment.

How does it work?

You could complete a USC Bachelor degree in as little as two semesters (one year full-time study) if you have completed similar tertiary study at home.

Are you already enrolled in postgraduate study? You could complete a USC Master in only one semester if you have completed similar postgraduate studies at home.

If your home university provides credit transfer for your USC studies, you may be able to complete both your home degree and USC degree in the same time period.

What can I study?

Our most popular degrees for this study option are:

- Bachelor of Business (CRICOS code: 022807A)
- Master of International Business (CRICOS code: 077420K)
- Master of Management (CRICOS code: 082695G)
- Master of Business Administration (CRICOS code: 066777E)

Double degree options are available in other study areas as well. If you would like to find out more about obtaining degrees from both USC and your home university at the same time, please contact the International Office.

It has definitely been the best decision of my life to study abroad in Australia. I was one of the first Master students of my home university who went to the USC and had the chance of doing a double degree during one semester. The Orientation days at USC have given the students enough information to not worry about a thing and the chosen courses have been very enjoyable (besides giving us a lot of free food and the chance to meet the other international students). The classes were smaller in comparison to classes in Austria and the lecturers communicate with the students on a more personal level. They were always willing to help and always available for any concerns, which was a pretty pleasant study experience. The campus itself is very well equipped and it was actually a lot of fun to work on assignments at the library with all the other students. What is more, besides the USC gym, there were a lot of activities and clubs for students to join. One of the best experiences for me was living in the student accommodation, which was only five minutes walk from the campus. Living there made it a lot easier to get to know all those awesome people from all over the world I've met! Other little extras are all the beautiful beaches nearby and the kangaroos chilling directly on the campus, or the travels you can do in this stunning country! To sum up, I had the time of my life and it was worth every dollar I've spent! I am so grateful for this unique experience and would recommend it to everyone!

Credit transfer

You may be able to gain credit towards your USC program if you have previously completed some tertiary study. Depending on your prior qualifications or studies, you may be able to complete a USC bachelor degree in as little as two semesters (one academic year).

As well as study at undergraduate and postgraduate level, USC also recognises study completed at associate degree or diploma level for credit transfer, such as:

- French – BTS or DUT
- Denmark – Academy Profession (AP) Degree
- Sweden – Högskoleexamen
- USA – Associate Degree

If you are currently studying, you may be able to credit the study completed at USC towards your home qualification, meaning you could graduate with two qualifications in the same time period.

International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma

Your IB Diploma could earn you up to four courses (a full semester) of credit towards a USC bachelor degree. The credit you gain is determined by the IB Diploma subjects you completed and your choice of USC degree program. You can apply for credit transfer at the time of submitting your application form to the International Office.

To assist us in determining what credit can be awarded, where available include course outlines of courses you have already completed as supporting documentation with your application.

Professional Recognition of USC Programs

Some of USC's programs are accredited or recognised by professional bodies in Australia.

Professional recognition may afford graduates automatic membership of a professional body or allow graduates to apply for membership.

In some cases, membership of a professional body requires meeting criteria in addition to a higher education qualification. For example, you may need to demonstrate a specific level of English language proficiency or hours of work experience.

To practice in certain professions, membership of the relevant professional body is required. Some key things to keep in mind are:

- you should investigate the requirements for membership of professional bodies relevant to your degree program.
- you should confirm with any relevant overseas (or Australian professional body that your USC qualification will entitle you to work in your intended profession, and what other criteria you might be required to meet).

You can find information about USC degrees and professional recognition on individual program information pages at usc.edu.au/internationalprograms
